

Hixson-Lied College of Fine and Performing Arts
Johnny Carson School of Theatre and Film

Learning Outcomes for a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre Arts
with an Emphasis in Film and New Media Production

When students graduate with an Emphasis in Film and New Media, they will have:

1. Demonstrated an understanding of each of the three phases of motion picture production and utilized this understanding by applying established organizational techniques to their own productions.
2. Developed an understanding of the motion picture industry and the range of career paths available within the industry.
3. Gained an understanding of story as it relates to narrative movie-making and applied that understanding to the screenplays they have written.
4. Developed and produced movies from concept through completion utilizing original scripts and both digital and traditional motion picture technology.
5. Developed an aesthetic sense of story in both screenwriting and as applied to mise-en-scene within individual movie projects.
6. Developed and demonstrated a technical proficiency in motion picture lighting, sound, editing, camera, visual effects and production organization.
7. Solved technical and aesthetic problems that arose during the three phases of the production process.
8. Demonstrated an understanding of digital media and interactive design for a range of digital processes.
9. Demonstrated through study and practice an understanding of acting and directing for stage and screen.
10. Demonstrated an understanding that the movie making process is a collaborative art form by filling a variety of crew positions on student projects during their tenure in the FNM program.