

HIXSON-LIED COLLEGE OF FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD

2019-20

Description

This is an annual, one-time award is given to an eligible faculty member who has demonstrated exemplary accomplishment in teaching over the preceding two academic years.

Eligibility

All current full-time faculty members who have held an ongoing appointment in the Hixson-Lied College of Fine and Performing Arts for at least two years and have not received this award in the last four years are eligible.

Stipend

$4,000 total ($1,000 from University, $3,000 from College)

Deadline

Completed nomination form and supporting documentation must be submitted to the Associate Dean by December 6, 2019.

Required Documentation

From Nominator:

- I. Completed nomination form
- II. Letters from nominator and seconder summarizing and giving specific examples of the nominee's accomplishments in teaching

From Nominee:

I. Teaching Portfolio (maximum 4 pages)

A. List of courses taught during the last two academic years

B. Self-Reflection on Teaching content must include a statement of teaching philosophy (1-2 pages)

and may be based upon, but not limited to the following:
(events/activity must be within the last two academic years)

- Brief explanation of curricular development (courses developed, modified, etc.)
- Evidence of engagement in pedagogical discourse
- Teaching colloquia, workshops, training seminars, peer review project, etc. attended
- Published works or presentations related to teaching
- Teaching awards won
- Evidence of noteworthy student accomplishments

C. Student Feedback (from the last two academic years)

1. Summary of student evaluations
2. Excerpts from student evaluations

II. Syllabi of all courses taught in the last two academic years

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD

NOMINATION FORM

Due in the Dean's Office: Friday, December 6, 2019

Nominee information:

Name

Current rank

School

Nominator information:

Name of nominator

Current rank

Name of seconder

Current rank